life100

Join us for the opening reception on Sunday, March 15th, 2:00 – 6:00 pm.

life100 will showcase over 30 of Armenia's master artists and 20 contemporary Armenian artists from Los Angeles, whose combined stories represent the impact of the Armenian Genocide from over 15 countries.

This landmark exhibition celebrates the contribution of artists of Armenian descent toward re-establishing cultural identity and building creative spirit for the future and highlighting resilience, strength, and creativity in the face of adversity.

The works in the exhibition come from Southern California private collections and commercial galleries and represent master artists such as Arshile Gorky, John Altoon, and Minas Avetisyan, as well as some of the best local Armenian artists including Joanne Julian, Aram Saroyan and Vahe Berberian.

EXHIBITION ON VIEW: MARCH 15 – MAY 1

Programs are free and open to the public;
seating is limited.
